Council Shakes Up Department in Efficiency Try

In an executive session last night, the press was present, Hope City Council reviewed personnel issues of every city department and launched a program to promote efficiency. Very few departments escaped criticism.

Chief target for the night's discussion was the Health Department where expenditures have steadily increased over the years. The group completely abolished the job of supervisor for the department and made the present supervisor, foreman of a truck crew. Drivers of two other trucks will be made foreman for their particular truck. The crews were to be called "before a special committee this morning to be given detail instructions of their duties and what is expected of each man."

Specific Duties
In fact duties of every department will be discussed with employees with specific instructions. The council left no doubt that if the efficiency wasn't improved there would be some personnel changes.

It was a frank, name-calling session with councilmen specifically pointing out various incidents which they had actually witnessed or had their attention called to by a citizen.

In other action the group delayed discussing a proposal by Water and Light Plant Superintendent Jack Fielding in behalf of W&L employees, that workers in that department go on a 40-hour week basis. It was pointedly brought out by several members of the council that wouldn't approve any such proposal without including all city workers. However, no action was taken pending a study of the proposal.

Some Purchases
Purchase of a new mower to be used in Fair Park was given an okay and bids will be taken; and the council bought a new gravel truck for the Street Department from B. R. Hamm Co. whose bid was low.

A committee was appointed to investigate possibilities for a community rest room for Negro shoppers.

An ordinance setting up Sewer Improvement District No. 2, the Yergers School area, was approved by the group.

And the Council voted to purchase a roof for the Youth Center and to contract the labor for putting it on.

A resolution calling for a wet Millwood Dam was wholeheartedly approved by the group.

Expenses of $150 was allowed to Mayor Olsen who will be a delegate to Washington in connection with the Millwood Dam hearing. During his absence the Mayor appointed Councilman C. W. Tarpoley to act as Mayor pro tem.

Russia Moves to Power in Middle East

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union appears to be moving swiftly and with great skill to consolidate a position as a power in Middle Eastern affairs.

This is the interpretation most generally placed here on the Russian Foreign Office announcement of readiness to cooperate in United Nations efforts to make peace between Israel and the Arab states. The move, in the view of U. S. officials, was timed to set the stage for British-Russian talks on the Middle East. It was announced as a warship carrying Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss, approached English shores for the first visit ever made by Soviet Communist rulers to a great Western capital.

American officials are watching the London scene closely to see what kind of impact the Soviet leaders make on the people of England and Western Europe. They also are eager to learn whether the Kremlin pair comes up with any concrete proposals for Middle East action, for progress on disarmament negotiations or for developments on other world issues.

Officials here believe Bulganin and Khrushchev would welcome an invitation to visit Washington. No consideration is being given at present to extending such an invitation. It might be possible if their London visit goes off well.

The Russian policy shift on the Middle East is analyzed here as serving several Soviet purposes. At least one of them coincides with the announced abolition of the Cominform as an agency for international Red propaganda.

This is the idea that a major aim of Soviet foreign policy now is to demonstrate peaceful and friendly intentions all over the world with the hope of diminishing fear of Soviet power and lulling the Western world into a sense of relaxation.

Tornado Fury Shown to Kiwanians on Film

The fury and violence of a roaring tornado was brought before the eyes of Hope Kiwanis club Tuesday in a dramatic presentation.

The film was furnished by the U. S. Weather Bureau, and showed various precautionary measures to take to protect lives and property in the path of a twister.

The film told the story of Elmhurst, Ill., where a tornado was spotted within a 180-mile area and the town given about 30 minutes to prepare for the oncoming blow. There was much destruction, but no lives lost.

Guests of the club Tuesday were: Homer Jones, state health officer of Arkadelphia, and Walter Smiley of Hope.

CATS NOT INCLUDED

CHICAGO (UP) — Judge Henry G. Hershenson ruled yesterday that a husband may have to pay support to his estranged wife but not to her cats.

James Lauritsen, 39, had been ordered to pay his wife $45 a week support $10 of which was for the care of her five cats. Judge Hershenson said the cats could look out for themselves and cut the payments to $35.

Every Country Has Its Slum Problems But Manhattan's Is Somewhat Different

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Actually, just what is a slum?

There are innumerable slum clearance programs abroad here, as elsewhere in America.

But what is truly a slum? Most people would probably agree — certainly many honest housing experts might — that any area in which people regularly paid more rent than they could afford, were overcrowded, who had less space and light and air than they humanly needed were living under slum conditions.

If, as many people in the upper East Side of Manhattan do live under these conditions by choice because they feel the address gives them a prestige, who is there to criticize them?

Very few or none. The warrens

Sharp Defeat Is Given Kefauver in New Jersey

By RELMAN MORIN

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee went down to a resounding defeat in the New Jersey primary today, the most serious setback since he opened his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination.

At the same time, New Jersey Republicans gave President Eisenhower a firm endorsement, although he had no opposition.

Returns from 3,416 of the state's 4,155 voting districts showed these totals in the preference sections of the ballots:

Eisenhower 260,007.
Kefauver 98,227.

In the Democratic returns, there also were 68 write-ins for Adlai Stevenson, who was not a candidate in this primary.

For Kefauver, however, the "popularity contest" was much less serious than the battle for delegates to the nominating convention. His 72 backers — who would have 30 convention votes — were swamped by an unpledged slate headed by Gov. Robert B. Meyner.

The organization elected 63 delegates with 31½ votes, while Kefauver elected only one delegate with ½ vote. The organization led in the remaining 8 contests with 4 votes.

On the Republican side, a vote delegation pledged to the President was elected. It had taken opposition from three "conservative" and undesignated candidates.

Kefauver campaigned intensively for six days in New Jersey, making his final appearance last Sunday. But the tactics of hand-shaking and meeting people that served him so well in New Hampshire and Minnesota failed here.

His campaign manager here, Martin J. Rafferty of Newark, said however:

"The senator performed a great service for the people of New Jersey. He showed great political courage by coming into the state. The people gave him a good vote. It is by no means a defeat for him. Highly organized Democratic machines in 2 counties were too much for him to overcome."

Teachers Hold Final Meeting at Fish-Fry

Royce Weisenberger and Alex H. Washburn addressed the final meeting of the school year for the Hempstead County Education Association at a fish-fry in the exhibit building at Hope's Fair Park Tuesday night.

County Supervisor Elmer Brown opened the meeting, with invocation by Milton Peebles, Saratoga Superintendent, and remarks by Floyd Pinkerton association president, who is superintendent at Gentryville. Officers were re-elected for 1955-57 as follows:

Mr. Pinkerton, superintendent; Mr. Peebles, vice-president; and Mrs. W. O. Boone, Hope, secretary-treasurer.

The fish-fry, offering both catfish and buffalo, was arranged by the teachers of Saratoga, Spring Hill, Columbus and Palmos, who got a vote of appreciation after the meal.

JUST TIRED

CHICAGO (UP) — Mailman Alvin Timm explained to federal Judge Joseph Sam Perry yesterday why his motel room was crammed with sacks full of undelivered Christmas mail.

of the pseudo-rich are spared, but only temporarily. The true rich move away.

They do certainly in other cities. Usually they move away and their ancient spacious houses become the warrens of the poor. A warren is a crowded place.

In Manhattan Island the problem is different from other cities. For half a century the whole island has been unduly pushed together, population-wise. It has been a civic warren for a long time.

Old neighborhoods have a stubborn urge to stay together. The people who live there don't want to be displaced, and move reluctantly when new "projects" are built.

Cease Fire in Middle East Is Expected

JERUSALEM (AP) — A usually reliable political source said Dag Hammarskjold is expected to announce tonight a new Arab and Israeli agreement to a cease-fire along the Egyptian-Israeli armistice line.

The U. N. secretary general was reported to have received consent from both Egyptian and Israeli officials, in negotiations over the past week, to a new and definite attempt to maintain the armistice in the broad sense of the word.

This report came out in the wake of the Soviet Union's surprise announcement it would back a U. N. "Clement of the Arab-Israeli conflict."

Press reaction to the Russian move seemed generally favorable in both Egypt, which is getting arms from the Communist bloc, and in Israel, which contends those Communist arms are upsetting the balance of powers in the Middle East.

U. S. Ambassador Edward B. Lawson left Tel Aviv somewhat mysteriously for Washington consultations. His plane seat was booked in the name of "Hyde" and he arrived at the airport while his Embassy was denying his departure.

Hammarskjold, following up two long conferences yesterday, talked again with Premier David Ben-Gurion and other Israeli government leaders on how to reduce border tension and to avert the danger of a Middle East war.

Publicly, Israeli officials were saying nothing about Moscow's offer to back a U. N. settlement of the feuding, recently intensified that has marked the years since the Palestine war of 1948.

Western diplomats viewed the Soviet policy shift as serving Soviet purposes. In Washington, American experts generally interpreted the move as an indication the Soviet Union is moving swiftly and skillfully to consolidate a position as a power in Middle East affairs.

Graham Trial Held Up by Jury Trouble

DENVER (UP) — A middle-aged mother, tentatively approved earlier as a juror in the airliner bomb-plot murder trial of John Gilbert Graham, wrote the presiding judge a note today saying that because the defendant was about the same age as her own two sons, she had decided she could not vote for a death penalty.

Mrs. Mary Margaret Rose, a housewife, had been accepted yesterday by both the defense and the prosecution as part of the jury being picked to hear the trial of the 24-year-old Graham, accused of the murder of his own mother in the explosion and crash of an airliner that killed 44 persons last Nov. 1.

But today Judge Joseph M. McDonald called counsel to his chambers and read the following note from Mrs. Rose:

"I thought I could be a fair juror and wanted to be honest in doing my civic duty as a juror. I was sincere in this but the (more) I look at the defendant the more I realize I could not consent to the death penalty if necessary. He is too near the age of my own boys. I'm sorry."

The prosecution used one of its peremptory challenges to remove Mrs. Rose from the panel.

Attorneys driving for completion of a jury to try Graham ran into other obstacles today, including five other veniremen in succession who said they were opposed to voting the death penalty. Two others said they had fixed opinion in the case.

There still was hope, however, the panel might be completed by the end of today's trial session.

Anti-Reds Greet Arrival of Soviet Brass in Britain

LONDON. (UP) — Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev arrived in London today to begin a 10-day tour of Britain.

Anti-Communist Britons demonstrated in the city as the special train bearing the Soviet leaders reached Victoria station at 2:15 p. m. (9:15 a. m. EST).

The Russians reached here from Portsmouth, the south coast port where they stepped ashore stiff and unsmiling to a coldly formal welcome.

A Soviet cruiser brought them to Britain.

Protest demonstrations broke out even before they stepped ashore. These tended to mar the double-barreled "peace offensive" launched yesterday by Moscow with announcements of support for a U. N. settlement of the Palestine dispute and dissolution of the cominform.

A 19-gun salute from the British aircraft carrier Bulwark roared a greeting, but the Soviet leaders were stiff and formal and the squat Khrushchev even looked bored.

They set off from Russia in hopes of repeating the propaganda victory they won in their recent tour of southeast Asia.

But the most rigid security precautions seen in peacetime Britain made it certain there would be no repeat of that hand-shaking tour when Bulganin and Khrushchev repeatedly denounced the West.

The bearded Bulganin, looking every inch the old world diplomat, was the first to step down the gangplank. Khrushchev, a round figure in black overcoat and fedora with upturned brim, closely followed.

Neither warmed up as they were presented to a waiting group of Britons and Russians though Bulganin gave an occasional brief but formal smile. Khrushchev looked bored throughout the proceedings.

Bulganin was the front man and it was he who was presented first to the welcoming dignitaries.

Party Platform Is Proposed by President

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Republican party went before the country today with an eight-point platform proposed by President Eisenhower to keynote the GOP "crusade" of 1956.

To Mr. Eisenhower the campaign was already on. He said the Republican campaign should be based on people and principles — equal rights for all people and no retreat from principle to compromise with expediency.

The President spelled out his platform ideas last night at a dinner closing a two-day Republican campaign strategy conference attended by 800 party leaders and members of Congress.

While avoiding such specifics as the farm issue and foreign policy, he presented in general terms the eight ideas which he predicted would provide the substance of the party platform to be adopted next August.

"The Republican platform will be a program of principle around which all Americans — Republicans, independents and sound-thinking Democrats — can rally," he said.

Sheep Shearing Time Is Here

Several farm men and women observed Howard Milam and Vernon McMurry of Liberty Hill Community south of Hope harvest a wool crop Monday. Each sheep sheared produced around eight pounds of good quality wool. In addition, each ewe has one or two head of lambs that are expected to be marketed in June or July.

County Agent Adams says Mr. Milam and Mr. McMurry have very good small flocks of sheep and are very much interested in that phase of livestock farming expanding in our area. Both farmers have had much experience in sheep production before moving to Hempstead County. Interested farmers are invited to contact either of these sheep producers and observe their flocks or to see the county agent.

It Happened! Grace, Prince Are Married

By PRESTON GROVER

MONT CARLO, Monaco (AP) — Serious-faced and sitting rigid as a statue film queen Grace Kelly became the real life Princess of Monaco and bride of Prince Rainier III today. No tears were shed and no kisses were exchanged.

The brief civil ceremony, uniting the 26-year-old American film star to one of the oldest princely families of Europe and making her First Lady of this 270-acre Mediterranean principality, was televised by Europe's major networks. A religious ceremony will be performed tomorrow.

Today's ceremony consisted mainly of an exchange of "Ouis" and the signing of an official register in the presence of 61 guests. As these details were concluded, Grace relaxed and glanced at the Prince but he was staring straight ahead. Then she glanced at her sister, Mrs. George Davis of Philadelphia. In the exchange of smiles it appeared for a moment the bride was going to burst into laughter.

"I am kind of numb," she said after the ceremony.

The 32-year-old bridegroom was strained and nervous as he sat beside the blonde beauty from Philadelphia and Hollywood in the small gold and red Throne Room of the Palace of Monaco. He ran his finger under his collar, bit his fingernail and pulled his mustache.

Kellys and members of Rainier's ancient Grimaldi family were banked on both sides of the couple in the Throne Room, along with movie and television cameras; representatives of government; a small group of American, French and British reporters, and a few other guests.

The bride signed the official register making her a princess at 11:15 a. m., using her full name, Grace Patricia Kelly. She was a little uncertain just how the Prince signed, but said after the ceremony she thought he had written "Rainier, Prince of Monaco. His full name is Rainier Louis Henri Maxence Bertrand Grimaldi."

The week-long wedding celebration which has drawn thousands to this Riviera pleasure spot will conclude tomorrow with a religious ceremony in Monaco's Roman Catholic Cathedral. Actually, the couple are married now according to French and Monaco law, but for the Catholic Church they will not be wed "in the eyes of God" until the church rites.

Later tomorrow the couple will sail on the Prince's yacht for a

Staff Denies Giving Faubus Complaints

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Twenty-three full time staff physicians at State Hospital says none of them supplied Gov. Orval Faubus with a list of complaints about the institution.

Faubus says one of the 23 did, but the governor didn't identify the doctor he claims was responsible.

In a debate with Sen. Ewing H. Crawford on the continuing hospital controversy, Faubus on April 6 read a "bill of particulars" setting out 35 specific complaints about hospital operation.

He said the staff doctor had supplied the list.

The 23 staff physicians sent Faubus a letter and yesterday made public a copy of it. "In the letter the doctors said: 'Each member of the medical staff has placed his signature at the bottom of this letter in denial of providing such complaints to you and further denial that we signed such a document as you referred to.'"

Faubus, in Dallas with a Little Rock Chamber of Commerce good will delegation, said by telephone that he hadn't reported that the list of complaints was assigned by a doctor.

"I said it was given to me by a doctor," Faubus said. "His name is on that list."

Three-Way Wreck on Main Street

Last night on South Main Street three autos collided causing considerable damage.

City Police said an unknown auto turned off Main unexpectedly forcing another driven by Joe Hollis Jr. to stop suddenly. A car behind Hollis and driven by Datton Clark was hit in the rear by a third car driven by Mrs. Billy Joe Butler. The impact forced the Clark auto into the back of the Hollis vehicle.

Mrs. Butler's young daughter suffered a bump on her head but was not seriously injured. All three cars had some damage.

Farm Leaders Declare Soil Bank Is 'Dead'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Heads of House and Senate farm committees today pronounced President Eisenhower's proposed soil bank dead for this session of Congress. But House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tx) said "there may be something done" on farm legislation.

As the House approached a vote on overriding the President's veto of the omnibus farm bill, Chairman Cooley (D-NC) of the Agriculture Committee told reporters the soil bank plan was a "dead duck."

Cooley said there wasn't "a Chinaman's chance" that Congress would enact it as a separate measure as asked by Eisenhower. The soil bank was one section of the vetoed bill.

Similarly, Chairman Ellender (D-La.) of the Senate Agriculture Committee said in a separate interview that he did not believe Congress would go along with the President's request.

"I'm not going to trust them with $1,200,000,000, or even 500 million during an election year," Ellender said.

By "them" he referred to the President and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Ellender announced that Secretary Benson would be called before a public session of the Senate Agriculture committee tomorrow to discuss the farm support laws since the veto.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders called for a House vote today to override President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill but conceded in advance they were merely going through the motions. They acknowledged they had no real hope of reversing the two-thirds margin required to upset Eisenhower's rejection of the bill.

Failure to pass such a majority would kill the measure. Only in the event the House voted to override would it go to the Senate for a similar test.

House rules limit debate on a veto message to one hour.

"With partisan feeling running high, the Democrats prepared to demand a recorded rollcall on the farm issue for use in the fall political campaign."

"This is one thing they (the Republicans) can't pass on

Some on the West Side or the lower East Side have more cash in the bank and have had for years, than transients who dwell on the fashionable East Side, and live from cuff to cuff.

The difference is that, having money, they put up with true slum conditions... lack of space, sunshine, fresh air and personal sanitation facilities—because they are at home. They'd miss their neighbors if they left—and feel lonesome.

I don't believe it is unfair to say that the warrens of the wealthy, here certainly, are maintained by the snobbery of the hangers-on, willing to trade both their birthright and a small income to enjoy a "proper" address.

The yearning sycophants, perpetuating a protective slum around the rich they adore.

But what is a slum? It is an area of our date buildings, populated by some people who live in people who may be torn down by being forced to move away—and who, themselves, like many of the buildings, are not unworthy of being remembered as they were. This is the problem when you tear down a slum, on the East Side—or, as they are going now also, along Park Avenue. You lose a lot of what was.

Party Platform

"We welcome them all." By his invitation to independents and Democrats to join the GOP in an organized crusade, Mr. Eisenhower again sounded like the GOP must set up "no walls of birth or creed or party."

And when he talked of a campaign based on principle, he may have been talking of the farm bill he vetoed this week, despite some party pressure to sign it because it departed from his basic recommendations.

"Policies not based on principle retreat to expediency," he said. "They become, as we have seen them become in the past, surrenders to pressure, bribes for support, escape from responsibilities."

In visualizing the party platform, the President said in part:

1. "The individual is of supreme importance... every American of every race and creed should enjoy equal rights and privileges of free citizens in a free nation."

2. "The spirit of our people is the strength of our nation."

3. "America does not prosper unless all Americans prosper."

4. "Government must have a heart as well as a head... government should increase and strengthen personal and family security without impairing the respect, the initiative and the incentive of the individual to provide for

Mediterranean honeymoon cruise. The civil ceremony was conducted in French by Marcel Pontaner, Monacan minister of justice, in the glare of lights for the grinding camera.

There was no special reason why both civil and religious ceremonies could not have been held the same day, as they often are, but this marriage is a great event for Monaco and Monacans are living it up. By a 98 treaty, Monacans would become French taxes and the French draft if Rainer decided without issue.

"They are half way," said John B. Kelly, father of the bride, after today's ceremony.

The events of the last three months have been much of a surprise in our lives," said Mrs. Kelly, mother of the bride.

The new Princess looked delighted and happy, but certainly a little dazed. She took a glass of champagne with three American reporters who were invited to a private apartment afterward. They wished her happiness. She smiled and replied and Prince Rainer came up and was also toasted.

State Guard to Go on Maneuvers

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Key personnel division will begin two days of simulated combat exercises Saturday at Ft. Polk, La. 11 Lark.

The division, which includes 11,692 officers and men from Arkansas and Louisiana, will send about 700 men to the exercises. They will be the key staff from all Louisiana and Arkansas headquarters down to and including the battalion level.

The mock battle will be staged the pretically on the Saar River area of Germany. The guardsmen will follow the battle on Louisiana territory with maps of Germany.

Army headquarters intends to train the staff to meet changing situations. About 6,000 messages will be fed to the division in two days, informing the men of changed enemy positions.

Helena to Get Grain Elevator

HELENA (AP)—Plans for construction of a grain elevator with a capacity of 250,000 bushels were announced here today.

Ham Grain Inc., which bought more than one million dollars worth of grain for farmers in the Helena area last year, will build the elevator and will construct facilities for loading barges of grain.

The installation will be capable of loading barges at the rate of 10,000 bushels an hour and will be able to handle up to 7,000 bushels an hour from trucks and railroad cars.

The announcement was made by the Agricultural Committee of the Helena Chamber of Commerce. It said construction would get under way immediately.

20,500 Students in U of A Program

FAYETTEVILLE (AP)—About 20,500 students have participated in some form of educational activity at the University of Arkansas during the current school year, the registrar's office said today.

That's an increase of about 2,389 over the previous year. The total includes 5,878 students in residence at Fayetteville or at the Medical and Graduate Centers at Little Rock. Also included in the figure are 13,000 students engaged in extension work.

The enrollment at the Fayetteville campus was 5,066, compared to 4,551 during the 1954-55 year.

Central Church Ownership Is Suggested

ROGERS (AP)—A churchman told the 74th convention of Arkansas Christian Churches here today that the time may be "past due" when all property of the Disciples of Christ should be controlled by a central organization.

Ira D. Crewdson of Little Rock, executive secretary of the Arkansas Christian Missionary Society, said the denomination last 138 congregations during the last 40 years.

He said that much church property had been lost through the present system of each church owning its own property.

"I sometimes wonder," said Crewdson, "that if the time is not past due when all church property of the Disciples of Christ regardless of the size of congregation should not be held in trust by a responsible organization of our brotherhood."

He said he was not advocating that the Missionary Society should be the controlling organization.

The Rev. Robert D. Chambers, pastor of the Christian Church at Russellville, told the delegates "conformity to the desire of the congregation is a sorry price for a minister to pay for wanting to be loved."

"Conformity to some unwritten law as to how a preacher ought to look or act or speak is a pollution to the problem of getting ahead ecclesiastically," he said.

Delegates attending the convention's opening session last night heard their president criticized real discrimination in the churches.

Cullar, president of Local 381 of the union, said he felt it was proper for the highway director or some other member of the department to step into the dispute because of the department's asphalt shortage problem caused by the strike.

W. S. C. S. Circle 5
Met in Home Of

Mrs. W. M. Reinhardt
W. S. C. S. Circle 5 of the First Methodist Church met Monday, April 16, at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. W. M. Reinhardt, with Mesdames Pauline Tyner and Sam Huckabee as co-hostesses.

Attractive arrangements of gorgeous spring flowers decorated the reception rooms of the spacious and lovely Reinhardt home.

The meeting opened with the group singing the hymns, "Give of Your Best to the Master" and "In the Garden" followed by sentence prayers.

Mrs. Claude Tillery, chairman, presided over the business session and heard reports from Mesdames John Pierce, Odette Johnson, Leola Futrell, Hinton Davis, and Sam Huckabee. Announcements were made of the May Fellowship potluck luncheon and program sponsored by the United Council of Church Women, to be held May 4, at 12:30 p. m. at the Presbyterian Church.

The nominating committee, Mrs. Carl Gaddis, chairman, Mesdames Fred Glanton and Sam Huckabee, submitted the following names as officers for the coming year: Chairman, Mrs. Claude Tillery; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. W. M. Reinhardt; Secretary, Mrs. John Pierce; Treasurer, Mrs. Odette Johnson; and Local Treasurer, Mrs. Leola Futrell. These were elected unanimously.

The program was presented beside a most unusual and appropriate worship center which held a life sized Life Membership pin made of styrofoam wrapped with shining gold paper. Placed in front of the pin was an open Bible and on either side gold candle holders with lighted white tapers. Miss Mary Anita Laster related in a most interesting manner how Japan's churches show the path of unity, the Crusade Scholarship of Churches' ecumenical building which is under construction in Geneva, Switzerland. She stated that the Woman's Division of Christian Service has given a gift of $25,000 in honor of its president, Mrs. Laura Jean Brooks, for use in building some part of the new Ecumenical Library.

A most inspiring and impressive devotional on "Service" closed with the words of the song "Others," was given by Mrs. Reinhardt after which Mrs. Tillery presented W. S. C. S. Life Membership certificates and gold pins from the circle to three of its members, Mesdames Grover Thompson, Bill Wray, John Pierce, and to Mrs. J. W. Franks, a member of circle No. 3 for their devotion and christian service in the Woman's Society and the church.

The meeting closed with the group holding hands and repeating in unison the circle benediction. The hostesses then invited the 32 present, including two visitors, Mrs. J. W. Franks, and Miss Evelyn Bryant, into the dining room where delicious lime float and home made cookies were served from the table centered with a beautiful arrangement of Iris surrounded by tiny colored Japanese lanterns. Mrs. Virgil Keeley served at the punch bowl.

Low-cost Wedding Reception Should Husbands Do Housework? Lonely Widower Seeks Wife

Dear Dorothy Dix: My wedding date has been set for September and, like every other girl, I'd like a nice wedding. We haven't much money saved, so can't afford anything elaborate. We had planned a reception in a restaurant for 50 people, but find that runs into too much money. I live in a small apartment with my parents, who aren't very well. Could you suggest anything?

LAURA

Dear Laura: If you can enlist the co-operation of some friends (and practically everyone will rush to help a bride), you can have a fine reception for very little money. Since your home is too small, perhaps you could have the use of your church hall. Cake, sandwiches and punch need be the only refreshments. Everyone can be invited to a party like this; the invitations list doesn't have to be restricted, which certainly cuts down the hurt feelings that usually attend elaborate wedding receptions.

Your friends can help make sandwiches and perhaps one of them is handy enough to tackle the cake. If not, it could be made by a local baker or caterer. Just because most of the girls in your crowd have had restaurant receptions, you don't have to. In fact, I think this simple affair, to which everyone can be invited, is a perfect end to your wedding festivities. I do hope you plan something of the sort. Best wishes for your happiness.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I was recently very annoyed by a letter from a woman who thought her husband should do the housework. Yes, she was pregnant — so what?

I've had six children and never asked my husband's help. He works hard, very hard, and needs his rest when he comes home. I'm ashamed of my sex when I see and hear how lazy some women are. It's a disgrace for a man to work in the kitchen. I encourage my husband to rest every chance he has.

Dear F. L.: This is an individual problem that must be settled by each couple as it arises. I see no disgrace in a man's helping with housework, but neither do I think he should do it to gratify a lazy wife.

Today men, on the whole, don't do hard labor for long hours. Nor is a woman lazy because, she asks a little help at the end of a long day with very active children. Understanding each other's problems, co-operating when possible, is what brings a couple together in close harmony.

I think you're a bit too hard on today's housewife and mother.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Three years ago my wife and child died. Since then I have lived alone and find the loneliness hard to bear. I remember a visit to your city during my tour of duty with the armed forces. The people were so kind and considerate, so friendly and warm, that I thought perhaps you could somehow get me in touch with a lady (20 to 30) with or without children, who would be interested in corresponding with me. F. R.

Dear F. R.: Aren't you taking a round-about way to find a companion. Try a short cut. Young ladies differ little from city to city and I'm sure you'll find home territory as good a hunting ground as any.

Get friendly with the pastor of your church. Clergymen are excellent matchmakers; enlist co-operation from this quarter. Or, join an adult education class in a subject that interests you. A hobby group is another excellent source of new friends. And be sure to let married couples among your acquaintanceship know that widower, you won't want long for female companionship.

Kefauver Fights for New Jersey Votes

By RELMAN MORIN

NEWARK, N. J. (AP) — New Jersey began voting today in a primary election that found Sen. Estes Kefauver in a familiar position — battling the state Democratic organization.

This was the third such contest for him in little more than a month.

In New Hampshire and Minnesota, he defeated state organizations which were backing Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination. And he eluded his New Jersey campaign with the prediction, "We will win all over the states."

Today's election is not a direct test between the Tennessee senator and Stevenson.

Cold Night for American Opening

The American Association launched its 1956 baseball campaign Tuesday night in weather as cold as the hitters were hot.

Crowds totaling 12,492 saw the openers in the Class AAA league's four Eastern cities. The largest turnout was 7,733 at Wichita, lone newcomer to the Association. Wichita succeeds Toledo, which surrendered its franchise after the 1955 campaign.

Righthander Tony Ponce scattered eight St. Paul hits at Louisville, where the Colonels took a 5-2 decision with a run in the ninth inning. Charleston's Senators, who finished in the cellar last year, upset defending champion Minneapolis, 8-6; Denver rapped Wichita, 8-3, and Omaha got 17 safeties in an 8-7 decision over the Indianapolis Indians in a day game.

Williams, Mantle Are Heroes on Opening Day

By ED WILKS
Of The Associated Press
Memo to American League managers:

You can forget that defensive shift against Ted Williams. You'll either have to walk the big guy or pitch and pray.

The Thumper, who has won four American League batting titles—topped by his .406 in 1941—and has a lifetime .348 average, set the terms for the 1956 season when he made his first appearance in the Boston Red Sox' opening day lineup in four years yesterday.

Forced to miss those recent starts due either to service duties or injuries, Williams showed up as a healthy civilian for a change and banged two doubles to left and a single to center against Baltimore's shift as the Red Sox belted the Orioles 8-1.

The prescribed defense against Williams' notorious left-handed power has been to shift the shortstop and second baseman into right and crowd the outfielders around to right. Now something new is needed.

Ted, who walked his first time up, drove in a run and scored one in the 16-hit Boston attack, which got started with a four-run first off Bill Wright. Frank Sullivan held the Orioles in check with an eight-hitter, fanning seven.

The bat spree gave the Red Sox a running break in the predicted four-way AL pennant fight among Boston, New York, Chicago, and Cleveland.

The Yankees, who have been hinting this may be Mickey Vernon's BIG year at last, swamped Washington (10-4) with the Mick swatting two 475-foot homers out of the Senators' Griffith Stadium.

The White Sox got a jump on the Indians, winning 2-1 at Chicago when Cleveland ace Bob Lemon walked the clinching run home in the seventh.

Kansas City beat Detroit 2-1 on Gus Zernial's pinch two-run double.

In the National, which fell short of the AL's 117,210 opening day crowds with an attendance of 108,887, Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers—who won their first 10 games last season, were knocked off by Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 8-6. Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock homered for Milwaukee in the Braves' 6-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs on Lew Burdette's five-hitter. Stan Musial hit a two-run homer in the ninth as St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 4-2. And Johnny Antonelli tossed a six-hitter and homered in the New York Giants' 4-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

Yogi Berra also homered for the Yanks, who got six-hit pitching from Don Larsen. Karl Olson, late of the Red Sox, homered twice for the Senators and Rookie Dick Tuttlebach, former Yank farmhand, once.

Southpaw Billy Pierce, the AL's earned-run leader in '55, five-hit the Indians, giving up a homer to Jim Busby—only member of the Busby-Chico Carrasquel-for-Larry Doby trade to do anything. Doby fanned three times—once with the bases loaded.

Sherm Lollar scored the winning run, and drove in the other for the Sox with a double.

Zernial's blow in the seventh wrecked Frank Lary's one-man show for the Tigers. Lary hit an inside-the-park homer off winner Alex Kellner for the lone Detroit run and had a three-hitter until the seventh.

Roberts, who set a major league mark by allowing 4 homers in '55, was tagged for a home run by Roy Campanella and an inside-the-park by Junior Gilliam, but the Phils gave him the padding he needed by chasing Don Newcombe. Jim Greengrass's three-run blast got rid of Newk in the third. Gran Hommer homered off End Rubeck.

Musial, out for his seventh bat title, was hitless in four trips before Joe Nuxhall made his ninth inning mistake. Vinegar Bend Mizell, pitching his first NL game since 1953, after mish Army discharge, was the winner, but needed help from Ellis Kinder in the ninth.

Dale Long homered twice for the Cardinals, who won 4-2 over the St. Louis Browns.

Big Leaguers Defeat Delight by 6-4 Tally

Yesterday at Delight, The Big League Stars came from behind on the strength of Jerry Fant's 350 ft. home run to deep right center to top a well drilled Delight nine 6 to 4. The Delight team is coached by former Legionnaire catcher Bobby Reese.

Delight was held to 5 hits by Charles Rodden and Herb Johnson but seemed to hit when runners were on. The Hope lads banged out a total of 13 safeties, 4 for extra bases, but left 9 runners stranded.

James Gilbert drove one through the hole at shortstop to lead off in the first and came home on Jerry Fant's single. Delight countered in the bottom half of the inning when Faulkner took first on an error and scored on Childer's triple. Childers then scored on a single by Fugitt.

Hope went scoreless in the second but Delight grabbed two runs when House led off with a single, McCallard followed with a walk and Childers doubled.

Hope picked up four in the third. James Gilbert led off with a single and then Jerry Fant blasted the first pitch 350 feet for a round tripper. William Watson followed with a double and scored on Travis Purtle's single. Then Ken Jones drove Purtle home and came in on brother Phil's single.

Again in the fourth, Gilbert led off with a double. Then Jerry Fant, with a three and two count, blasted another home run down the right field foul that, after some discussion was called a foul ball.

In the sixth, Larry Cox led off with his second single of the day advanced to third on Johnny Lingo's single and scored when Gilbert grounded hard to third base. Delight threatened in the bottom of the seventh when Fugitt led off with a single and Harrison hit a sharp liner to center that Dean England played nicely. Then Johnson retired the last two hitters on a strikeout and a bounce back to the mound.

Gilbert, with two singles and a double for four at bats, Jerry Fant with a home run and a single for four at bats, Ken Jones with a single and a double for three at bats and Larry Cox with two singles for three at bats were the leading hitters. Watson, Purtle, Johnson, P. Jones and Lingo each picked up one single.

The Hope team will play Texarkana High Razorbacks at Legion field at 3:30 on Friday afternoon.

Pirates to make Antonelli work for this decision. Bob Friend, the NL's ERA leader in '55, was the loser with two New York runs unearned. Willie Mays scored the winning marker, scooting home from second on an infield out.

Burdette, despite four innings of rain and snow, was never in trouble and held the Cubs to one hit in the last six frames.
